

NEU KÖLL NER KUNST PREIS 2020

Award ceremony at Heimathafen Neukölln
Friday, 24 January 2020, 7 p.m.
with municipal councillor for culture, Karin Korte

There is an abundance of high-quality work produced in Neukölln's vibrant art scene. The Neukölln Art Prize reflects this richness and professionalism with applications from nearly 170 artists working or living in Neukölln. Eight of those applicants have been nominated for the art prize, worth a total of 6000 euros, by a jury of seven experts. Their works feature in a group exhibition at Galerie im Saalbau. An award ceremony at Heimathafen Neukölln will publicly celebrate the nominees and prize winners.

Nominees:

Mara Diener, Eva Dittrich, Vanessa Enriquez, Catherine Evans, Jinran Ha, Katrin Hoffert, Johannes Lacher und Jana Sophia Nolle

The expert jury consists of: Ingo Arend (author, critic), Matthias Beckmann (artist), Dorothee Bienert (director of the district galleries Neukölln), Anne Keilholz (STADT UND LAND Wohnbauten Gesellschaft mbh), Thorsten Schlenger (Kulturnetzwerk Neukölln e.V.), Anne Schwarz (gallery owner) and Franca Wohlt (artist and 3rd prizewinner of the Neuköllner Kunstpreis 2017).

There will be an art prize party in Heimathafen's Great Hall following the award ceremony.

The exhibition at Galerie im Saalbau opens from 6 p.m.
Exhibition dates: 25 January— 29 March 2020

The Neukölln Art Prize is a cooperation between the Department of Culture and the Kulturnetzwerk Neukölln e. V. (Neukölln Cultural Network). The event is supported ideologically and financially by the STADT UND LAND Wohnbauten-Gesellschaft mbH.
